

Keylong Travel Guide – Best Time, Attractions & How to Reach

Description

Keylong, located in the Lahaul region of Himachal Pradesh, is one of North India's most underrated travel destinations. In this article, Getaway Experiences shares a complete Keylong Travel Guide, which is helpful for users who are planning to explore hidden gems in Manali. So Keylong is surrounded by the majestic Pir Panjal, Zaskar, and Dhauladhar ranges, Keylong offers a rare blend of spirituality, raw Himalayan landscapes, and peaceful local life.

Whether you're planning a Ladakh road trip, a bike expedition, or just craving offbeat mountain charm, this comprehensive Keylong travel guide has you covered – including when to visit, what to see, and how to get there. For more details, you can visit Manali Tour Packages.

– Complete Keylong Travel Guide: Where is Keylong?

Keylong is the administrative capital of the Lahaul and Spiti district in Himachal Pradesh. Located at an altitude of approximately 3,080 meters (10,105 ft), it lies on the Manali-Leh Highway (NH3) – making it a key halt between Manali and Leh.

Despite its strategic location, Keylong retains its small-town charm, making it perfect for those looking to escape the tourist crowds.

– Best Time to Visit Keylong

Keylong has a short travel season, but each month offers a different kind of magic. Here's how to plan your visit:

May to September – Peak Travel Season

- Why Go? Clear skies, blooming valleys, and motorable roads via the Atal Tunnel.
- Temperature: 10°C to 25°C

- Activities: Ideal for sightseeing, monastery visits, and trekking.

October to April ❄️ Off-Season (Snowbound)

- Why Avoid? Heavy snowfall blocks roads, including the Rohtang Pass and Atal Tunnel approaches.
- Exception: Winter expeditions or snow photography with proper guidance.

Pro Tip: Visit in June or early July to experience greenery and pleasant weather, before the heavy monsoon or post-snowmelt crowd.

🚗 How to Reach Keylong

🚗 By Road

From Manali (via Atal Tunnel):

- Distance: ~70 km
- Travel Time: 2 to 3 hours
- The Atal Tunnel makes this route accessible year-round (subject to weather).

From Leh:

- Distance: ~360 km
- Travel Time: 10~12 hours
- Route: Leh → Sarchu → Jispa → Keylong
- Best between June and September only.

From Shimla / Kaza (Spiti Route):

- Travel time: Long and unpredictable; not recommended unless doing a full Himachal circuit.

Tip: The HRTC (Himachal Road Transport Corporation) runs semi-deluxe and deluxe buses to Keylong from Manali and Delhi during summer months.

✈️ By Air

- Nearest Airport: Bhuntar Airport (Kullu) ~ 125 km from Keylong
- Connectivity: Limited flights from Delhi; taxis or buses from Bhuntar to Keylong.

🚂 By Train

- Nearest Station: Joginder Nagar (~250 km away)

- This option is not very practical due to the long road travel afterwards.
